Teaching Innovation Award

Description of Award

This award recognizes teaching innovation in a baccalaureate or graduate nursing education program, and acknowledges an individual(s) who has made an outstanding contribution to nursing education through teaching innovation.

Eligibility

Faculty members in a COUPN program.

Criteria

Nominations will be assessed in relation to the contributions of the nominee to one or more of the following categories: enhancement of the students' learning experience; teaching innovation; demonstrated success in teaching and learning strategies; and/or contributions to nursing curriculum development.

Application/Nominations Process

Nominations for this award may be made by a faculty member or nursing student in a COUPN program. Self-nominations will not be accepted. All nominations must include:

- A nomination letter of no more than two pages outlining reason(s) for the nomination with examples of contributions to teaching and learning innovation.
- Evidence of the teaching innovation.
- Two additional letters of support (total) from current students and/or from faculty colleagues.
- Nominee's curriculum vitae (most recent five years).

- Additional, relevant supporting documentation.
- A JPEG image of the nominee for use in the COUPN Awards brochure (if selected)
- Nomination letters must:
 - Identify the nominee by name, title (as relevant), credential, and COUPN program.
 - Include nominator and nominee contact information, including email address.

Nomination letters and any supporting documentation as noted must be submitted to sfellin@cou.on.ca by your Dean or Director's Office NO LATER THAN end of day Friday, March 24, 2017.
